

L'Atalante, Revista de estudios cinematográficos is a biannual non-profit publication founded in 2003, published in Valencia, Spain by the Associació Cinefòrum L'Atalante with the collaboration of various institutions, and distributed in print form all over Spain and Latin America. In 2012 we inaugurated the digital version, which will coexist with the print version, and has the novelty of including several issues in a special bilingual Spanish/English edition at no charge. The journal is a vehicle of expression for both professionals and theorists in the discipline and it covers, in addition to cinema praxis, a diverse range of topics within the contemporary audiovisual field. Its intended readership is made up of people whose work, research or interest is related to film studies.

At least 80% of the papers published are original articles. In the interests of promoting research carried out in other institutions and countries, 60% of the papers are by external authors not associated with the publisher. In addition to the internal review process, L'Atalante employs external evaluators with the arbitration system of peer review.

L'Atalante is indexed in numerous catalogues, directorates, summaries and databases of research and scientific dissemination journals. At the international level, it is included in the Arts and Humanities Citation Index® and in Current Arts and Humanities® maintained by Thomson Reuters (Philadelphia, USA); in Latindex (Regional System of Online Information to Scientific Journals from Latin America, Caribbean, Spain and Portugal); in SCOPUS by Elsevier (Amsterdam, Netherlands); and in the Library of Congress (Washington, USA). In Spain it is included in the CSIC database of Revistas de Ciencias Sociales y Humanas ISOC; in the bibliographic portal of Spanish scientific literature DIALNET; and in REBIUN (Red de Bibliotecas Universitarias). L'Atalante belongs to the group A (gA) of major international scientific journals according to the Clasificación Integrada de Revistas Científicas (Integrated Classification of Scientific Journals, CIRC). ■

The digital edition of the journal as well as its bilingual issues have been possible thanks to the support of the R&D&I National Project titled "Estudio y análisis para el desarrollo de una red de conocimiento sobre estudios fílmicos a través de plataforma Web 2.0" (HAR2010-18648), funded by the Spanish Ministerio de Economía y Competitividad.
